

November 28, 2023

To Our Valued US Customers:

SSAB Americas is increasing transaction prices on all as-rolled, normalized, quenched and tempered and wide cut to length products by a minimum of $60 USD per net ton, effective immediately on all new non-contract orders confirmed to ship December 31, 2023 week and beyond. Please note that the January 2024 order book is open for non-contract orders.

This increase is also in addition to the January raw material surcharge to be announced on Thursday, December 14, 2023.

Published extras, regional freight premiums and non-preferred freight mode extras will be applied. SSAB Americas reserves the right to re-quote any open offers not confirmed by an SSAB order acknowledgement. All other terms and conditions of sale remain unchanged.

Please contact your SSAB Sales Representative to confirm pricing and availability. As always, SSAB Americas remains committed to providing a quality product offering at a competitive market price.

Thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,
