

February 28, 2024

To our Valued Customers,

Effective with new orders received as of February 29, 2024, the Nucor Plate Group will be decreasing prices on certain items:

As Rolled: -$90/ton
Normalized-$90/ton

Q&T pricing will remain unchanged.

Please reference the attached Published Price List for further details.

All published adders/extras will be applied per the attached extras document. For any items not listed above, please inquire with your Nucor Plate Group District Sales Manager.

For any questions regarding this pricing structure or the freight matrix, please contact your District Sales Manager or Inside Sales Representative. Additionally, we are now accepting orders for April Production.

We reserve the right to review and re-quote any offers that are not confirmed with either a Nucor sales acknowledgment or written acceptance by both parties. As always, we are grateful for your continued support of the Nucor team.

Sincerely,
